Index offence

On the 20 December 2000, Jack Johnson drove to Mulholland Drive in Little Whinging, where he spotted the victim, Tom Riddle, sat in a car. Tom Riddle was the new partner of Jack Johnson's ex-partner. Jack Johnson got out of his own car, holding a handgun and Mr Riddle. He fired 4 shots at point blank range at him, at about 8.30pm. All shots hit the victim, once in the head, once in the right shoulder and twice in the chest. The victim was later pronounced dead at the scene by the attending doctor. The offender first fled the scene in his own car, and later handed himself at Little Whinging Police Station at around 10.45 pm.

Name: Jack Johnson

Date of birth: 20 September 1976

Offence: Murder

Date of sentence: 20 December 2000

Court and place: Leeds Central Criminal Court

Sentence or order of court: Life Imprisonment

Date of expiry of sentence for purposes of section 50 of 1983 Act: not applicable

Place in which detained at date of this warrant: HMP Leeds

Transfer direction in respect of person serving sentence
This Warrant is valid for 14 days from date of issue

Whereas the person mentioned above is serving a sentence of imprisonment within the meaning of section 47 of the Mental Health Act 1983:

And whereas the Secretary of State is satisfied by the reports of two medical practitioners, of whom at least one is a practitioner approved for the purposes of section 12 of the said Act, that the said person is suffering from mental disorder within the meaning of the said Act, that the mental disorder is of a nature or degree which makes it appropriate for the patient to be detained in a hospital for medical treatment and is satisfied that appropriate medical treatment is available to the patient.

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State, being of opinion, having regard to the public interest and all the circumstances, that it is expedient so to do, in pursuance of the said section 47 by this warrant directs that the said person be removed to and detained in:

"Becklin Centre, York and Leeds NHS Trust"

And the Secretary of State in pursuance of section 49 of the said Act by this warrant further directs that the said person shall be subject to the special restrictions set out in section 41 of the said Act until this restriction direction ceases, by virtue of section 50 of the said Act, to have effect.
